LA TENA'S CIRCUS
HERE TODAY
Two Performances Are Being Given on the Almshouse Field.

Today is circus day and Market Square and Congress streets were lined this morning with a large throng of people to witness the morning parade of La Tena's Wild Animal Show. While the management does not claim to be of the Barnum and Bailey class, the parade was exceptionally good, the horses drawing the circus making a fine appearance. There were two bands of music and the circus aggregation of musicians. Several open cages of animals formed a feature of the parade. La Tena's Circus will give two exhibitions on the Almshouse field, afternoon and evening and the price of admission is 25c for adults and 20c for children.

The Haverhill Herald has the following good word to say of the circus: Bright and clean and overflowing with genuine acts of world-wide quality. La Tena's Wild Animal Circus played to capacity crowds here yesterday, pleasing young and old alike, with the excellent program of novel numbers more than one of which would have done credit to a much more pretentious show. Everything about the show was clean and well-kept, the costuming and staging of the various acts was beyond reproach and the entire outfit proved one of even quality and considerable merit.

It was Haverhill's second taste of circus entertainment this season, and the show offered by the La Tena outfit was so far in advance of that given here by Wheeler Brothers last week that no comparison is possible. Both in the quality of the program and in the show, La Tena's circus proved a genuine credit to the show business as a whole.

PRESIDENT CANCELS TRIP

Will Not Come to Manchester Next Week as He Wishes to be at Capital to Deal With the Mexican Situation

A special dispatch to the Boston Globe says that President Wilson practically decided yesterday that it would be impossible to follow out his arranged plans and visit New England during the first part of next week.

The fact that the mediation situation at Niagara Falls may possibly reach an acute stage during the next ten days, requiring the President to be in immediate communication with the United States representatives at the conference, is given as a reason for his change of plans.

The President had originally intended to go to his summer home at Cornish, N. H., the latter part of this week for a few days' rest. Subsequently in response to an invitation extended by Senator Hollis of New Hampshire and Congressman Gardner of Massachusetts, the President agreed if he was at Cornish at the time to attend the New England flag day of the order of Elks to be held at Manchester, N. H., next Monday, and the New England flag day of the order of Moose to be held at Mayville, Maine, on Wednesday, June 17th.

In response to the request of some of his constituents interested in the Moose field day next Wednesday that he obtain some definite information for them, in order that they might proceed with the program, Congressman Gardner called at the White House yesterday and was informed that the President, in view of the Mexican situation, would be obliged to cancel his entire New England trip for next week.

SOME CHANGES ON RAILROAD

B. & M. Will Have Old Numbers on Through Passenger Trains.

One of the changes which the Boston and Maine will carry out at the change of train schedule on June 22, will be the return to former numbers on through passenger trains. This is made necessary from the fact that the Maine Central railroad never changed the number on trains and every passenger coming off the Boston and Maine had to have a change of numbers on the headlight after arriving at Portland and departing on the Maine Central. We may expect to see the old numbers No. 9, 11, 25, 26, 44, 61, 71, 102, 127, etc., even today, many railroads now refer to these trains by the old numbers regardless of the numbers which they are known by in the blue books for the past two years.

UNITED STATES REJECTS OFFER

Mediators Reach Flat Disagreement and Our Delegates Will Not Consent to Huerta Naming Foreign Minister

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 9. The United States is unwilling to extend recognition to a new provisional government if named according to the method described by the Mexican delegation, which is that General Huerta would appoint as minister of foreign affairs the man who is agreed upon here to head the new government.

The Washington administration contends that if General Huerta is permitted to name the foreign minister, who by constitutional enactment would be elevated to the presidency, even though the selection be made here, such an act would be construed as recognition of the Huerta government.

On this issue the mediating plenipotentiaries came to a flat disagreement late today at a conference held for consideration of the exact method by which the new provisional government in Mexico would be created out of the present regime.

For more than two hours the mediators and American delegates argued in vain and it was apparent when the conference ended that what hitherto had been considered a matter of detail had suddenly developed a snag. The Mexican delegates had not discussed the point at any length with the mediators when the latter took it up with the Americans.

Although the three South American plenipotentiaries strongly from the Mexican viewpoint, there was good reason to believe tonight that the Mexican delegates would not insist on the arrangement if they found the U. S. absolutely determined against it. One of the Mexican delegates indicated that they regarded the form of tradition as a technicality which could be dispensed with if the American government found it impossible to agree to the method suggested by the Mexican delegates.

FLAG DAY OBSERVANCE

Major Hoyt Issues Orders to Coast Artillery Companies Concerning the Same.

The following order was issued today by Major Chamney H. Hoyt to the four companies of the New Hampshire Coast Artillery Corps in relation to the parade at Manchester on Flag day: Headquarters Coast Artillery Corps, N. H. S. G., Portsmouth, Circular No. 1.

1. The New Hampshire Coast Artillery Corps will parade in Manchester, on Flag Day, June 15, uniform to be as follows:

All enlisted men Blue full dress with cords, caucuses with leather shoulder straps, black shoes, white collars and gloves, leather belts and cartridge boxes.

All officers Complete full dress, without caucuses.

Company commanders will see that every man's equipment conforms to the above.

2. Transportation will be based direct from the A. C. G. together with information as to the departure of special trains, etc.

By order of Major Hoyt,
Capt. W. C. Washburn, Adjutant.

and another there was not a dull moment for somewhere, either in the ring, on the stage or within the big steel animal arena, an act worthy of notice was in progress. A feature that proved well worth the price of admission alone was provided by Wesley's seals, an aggregation of trained animals that would be hard to equal anywhere. They play ball, play in a band and one old fellow actually succeeds in walking a tight rope unaided. In vaudeville, Wesley's seals would be termed a big time act, as a circus attraction the number has few equals.

Other animal acts worthy of more than passing notice were Walter Allen and his performing elephants, Buckman's bears, and last, but by no means least, Marguerite's lions. A fancy riding act featuring a tango on horseback, savored by the Barnum and Bailey show and was done with grace and ability by two clever equestrian performers. The program also included a very clever troupe of wire walkers who did many novel tricks and a gifted family of contortionists besides a number of aerial performers of merit. Trained dogs, a small army of clowns and a host of other attractions added the necessary variety and all in all it was a very fine entertainment.

BODY OF EDWARD SOUCY FOUND

Drowned Weeks Ago From Portsmouth Bridge--Was Jammed in the Piling.

A badly decomposed body of a man, supposed to be that of Edward Soucy, drowned from Portsmouth bridge some weeks ago, was recovered from the river on Tuesday evening.

The body was discovered by a man walking across the Portsmouth bridge shortly after seven o'clock and he notified the local police. Officer Anderson was sent over to the bridge and with special officer Smith and George McIntosh from Noddes Island they secured a boat and rowed out to the bridge. The body was wedged in between some piling and it was difficult to remove, but was finally hauled out the boat and landed at Noddes Island for Medical Referee Sherman's inspection.

The body was badly decomposed and it was impossible to identify it. He did not have either coat or vest. It was taken in charge by Undertaker Nickerson and removed to his home.

The description fits that of Edward Soucy who was drowned from the draw pier three weeks ago Sunday. Soucy did not have his coat or vest on, these being found afterwards on the pier. Soucy fell overboard while fishing from the draw pier on the Kittery side and at that time the tide was running out, and it was supposed that if the body was ever found it would be down the harbor or along the beaches. It was found on this side of the river, near the second truck and on the down river side, directly across from where it went down.

Soucy had people in Berlin and they have been here since the drowning looking for the body. They will be notified today.

LARGE SUPPLY OF FIREWORKS

Over two tons of fireworks were received this morning by John Pearson, the lot comprising a varied assortment of these fascinating toys. Mr. Pearson will not open these goods until July 1st, but those contemplating purchasing anything in this line should inspect this large stock before purchasing elsewhere. Mr. Pearson has already been awarded three contracts for furnishing fire work displays for Fourth of July.

Mrs. Thorpe, wife of Major Thorpe gave an afternoon tea on Tuesday to twenty of her friends at their residence at the navy yard. The party was

WILL RECEIVE THEIR DIPLOMAS

Graduation Exercises of Portsmouth Training School Next Monday Evening.

The Portsmouth Training School will hold their graduation exercises on Monday evening, June 15, at 8 o'clock, at the Assembly hall of the high school.

Five young women will receive diplomas and they are: Misses Anna Geraldine Byrne, Mary Katherine Conlon, Elizabeth Gertrude Cottle, Mildred Eugenia Gove, and Irene Frances Johnson.

These young ladies are all residents of this city and graduates of the Portsmouth High school class of 1912.

The speaker of the evening will be Robert J. Skike, principal of the Burr School of Amherst, Mass.

There will be two essays presented and an interesting program arranged. Music will be furnished by members of the Training school.

The exercises will be open to the public who are cordially invited.

WILL CLAIM THE BODY.

The relatives of Edward Soucy at Berlin were notified this morning of the finding of the body in the Portsmouth river Tuesday night by Chief of Police Hurley and they are expected here this evening to claim the body which was placed in Undertaker Nickerson's tomb.

Mrs. Eunice L. Taylor, teacher of typewriting and stenography at the high school, sails from New York on Saturday, June 13th on the Cunard liner "Batavia" to enjoy her summer vacation in Europe.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS DEFEATED BY Y. M. C. A.

Take a Bad Slump and Give Jefferson Wretched Support.

The Knights of Columbus, who had a first slump on Tuesday evening, and in a poor played game on their part were defeated by the Y. M. C. A. who once started, played a very fast game, taking all kinds of chances on bases and getting away with most of them. Jefferson pitched a good enough game to win, but he got very poor support, his team mates committing seven errors, and Jack O'Brien in left much to the surprise of everybody, dropped two fly balls, one good for four runs, J. Madden pitched for the Y. M. C. A. and he was touched for three hits in the first inning but after that he was in good form and allowed but two hits.

The Y. M. C. A. started the game with scoring four runs and they scored again in the third, fourth and fifth. The Knights scored twice in the first and again in the third, but after the first they were never dangerous.

The Knights are new to the Y. M. C. A. for the first of the season.

The Game in Detail

FIRST INNING

The Y. M. C. A. were up and McPheters singled to left, he was sacrificed to second by Mulholland, Jefferson went to Driscoll, Timmons beat out an infield single and Newton was passed transportation to first biling the bases. Butler drove a long fly to left that would have been a sacrifice fly had O'Brien held it, but to the surprise of everybody he dropped it and the ball rolled far enough away so that three runs were scored and Butler cleared the bases for the fourth. J. Madden struck out, Driscoll was hit and Thomas retired the side with a strike out. Four runs.

Reardon singled over second, which McPheters made a great stop of but he could not field it in time he went to second on a passed ball and an attempt to steal was disastrous, Thomas to Butler, O'Brien walked and scored on Mates drive to left, which struck just inside of the line and bounded off into the bleachers, Mates getting three bases, and he scored on Jefferson's sacrifice fly to Mulholland. In center McPheters singled to left but Driscoll was out on a long fly to Mulholland. Two runs.

SECOND INNING

J. Madden was thrown out by Jefferson, McPheters by McWilliams and Mulholland struck out.

The Knights were out in order, O'Brien on a grounder to McPheters, Hickey fouled and McWilliams to Mulholland.

THIRD INNING

Timmons grounded to Hickey who fumbled, he stole second, Newton struck out and Butler singled to center, Timmons reaching, T. Madden sacrificed Jefferson to Driscoll, Driscoll fled to Dondora who dropped the ball and Butler scored a half cent runner to third, and he remained there as Thomas struck out. Two runs.

Reardon beat out a grounder to Mulholland dropping his fly and Reardon scored, O'Brien going to second and he advanced to third on a wild pitch. Mates fled to Timmons and Jefferson hit to T. Madden who retired O'Brien at the plate, and Jefferson was caught in a second later clearing second, Thomas to McPheters. One run.

FOURTH INNING

J. Madden fled to Mates McPheters beat out a grounder to Hickey, and was sacrificed to second by Mulholland, Jefferson to Driscoll, Timmons gave Reardon a chance to fence which he accepted and McPheters scored. Newton was out to Mates on a long fly. One run.

McPheters struck out, Driscoll hit to T. Madden who broke it and his brother got it in time to get Driscoll out. First, Gordon who succeeded Dondora fanned.

FIFTH INNING

Butler fled to Jefferson, T. Madden reached first on Jefferson's fumble of his grounder, he stole second and went to third on Driscoll's single to right, Thomas fled back of short which Hickey made a fine catch of, but T. Madden scored on the throw in, saying Thomas a time at bat, J. Madden fled to O'Brien who dropped the ball and McPheters grounded to McWilliams who fumbled and Driscoll scored. Mulholland drew a pass but Timmons retired the side with a strike out. Two runs.

Thompson hitting for Hickey was thrown out by Reardon, McWilliams fled to Mulholland, Reardon was safe on Driscoll's fumble and O'Brien singled to left and Reardon was nailed going to third.

hence that the forms of the Mexican constitution should be preserved in the present instance. The American delegates are understood to have pointed out that the Constitutionists would never agree to a plan of transition which legalized Huerta's status. Also the American government it was declared, could not consistently with previous course, extend what would be tantamount to recognition of Huerta's status. Also the American government it was declared could not consistently with previous course extend what would be tantamount to recognition of Huerta's status. Also the American government it was declared could not consistently with previous course extend what would be tantamount to recognition of Huerta's status.

The divergence of opinion which developed over the method of succession illustrated the difficulties which are now before the mediation principle. Predictions that an agreement would be reached, were abandoned in quarters hitherto optimistic for a quick conclusion.

The counter proposals of the American government to the Mexican plan has not yet been taken up with the Mexican delegates, though they received them from the mediators earlier in the week.

A point which gave the Mexican delegates much satisfaction was that no war indemnity would be demanded by the United States as a result of the occupation of Vera Cruz. The American government has taken the position that the only reparation it desires for past offenses is the establishment of a sound and stable provisional government, which all factions will accept.

The day's conference were so taken up with the details of the peace plan that for the moment the question of constitutional representation was forgotten.

The Constitutionists' answer to the mediators is not expected materially to alter the situation as it is authoritatively known that no armistice will be declared by the Constitutionists, a condition on which the mediators insist, and without which the Constitutionists cannot hope for admission.

The probabilities are that the Constitutionists will send their delegates here within a few days, however, to discuss in detail the terms on which an armistice might be declared, but it is assumed that they will not agree to a suspension of hostilities until they know the details of the peace plan. The mediators believe the claims of the Constitutionists for participation in the provisional government can be taken care of in whatever final agreement is reached here, and that it matters little whether representatives of General Carranza appear at the conference.

The American delegates maintain that such an offer should be granted and certain concessions made by the mediators to allow Carranza to have his agents here, personally to discuss and approve whatever peace plan finally may be adopted. It is not at all unlikely that the American delegates will meet the Constitutionists and Huerta delegates in conference while the mediators are in recess. When an agreement between the Huerta delegates and Constitutionists is reached it would be submitted to the mediation board, and protocol then signed.

Frederick W. Lehmann, one of the American delegates came over to the Canadian side tonight and talked near two hours with Luis Elguero, one of the Mexican delegates. It was understood that the two men were discussing the point of disagreement in today's long conference. It was one of the few occasions when delegates of both sides talked directly without transmitting their views through the mediators.

When Mr. Lehmann left, all the Mexican delegates gathered for conversation and were joined by the mediators.

The Storage for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at Manchester, received many complaints on Tuesday from along the White Mountains division of the Boston and Maine railroad, in regard to a car of calves, en route to Boston. It is said that the car contained 125 calves and one hog, and that owing to the size of the car each animal was allowed about two square feet. Upon the arrival of the train at Concord the car containing the animals was cut open and part of them transferred to another car. On investigation it was found that two of the calves were dying and were put out of misery. It is expected that the president of the society, with the agent, Dr. J. E. Pickering will take measures to prevent a recurrence of an affair of this nature.

GENERAL FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS OPENS AT CHICAGO

Chicago, June 9.—A complimentary concert was given in the Auditorium Theatre this evening to the delegates to the 12th biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. There will be a council meeting tomorrow morning. This council is composed of every club president in the Federation. State presidents, General Federation State secretaries, directors and chairmen of departments. The varied interests of the General Federation are brought before the council in an intimate way, with opportunities for general discussion. Mrs. George Winslow Perkins of Boston, president of the Massachusetts State Federation; Mrs. D. T. S. Denison of New York and Mrs. Lillian Gray

Palmer of California will open the discussion, dealing with the feasibility of discussion from the floor during the main sessions of the biennial. Mrs. Watson L. Watson of Vermont will lead the discussion as to the possible influence of the federation in the adoption of a large number of resolutions covering the various departments of work. Mrs. W. E. Andrews of Washington, D. C. will call to order the conference of state presidents of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at the Congress Hotel tomorrow afternoon. There will also be a conference of the bureau of information at which Mrs. Mary L. Wood of Portsmouth, N. H., will preside. The address at the formal opening of the convention tomorrow evening in the Auditorium Theatre will be made by Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, whose subject will be "Women's Clubs and Public Policies."

36,052 TELEPHONES IN THIS STATE

Washington, June 9.—The department of commerce has issued a bulletin showing the number of telephone systems reporting an annual income of $5,000 or more, together with the number of telephone and messages or talks over these phones as estimated and other details. The figures for the New England system showed the number of telephones in New Hampshire to be 26,052 in 1912. The number of messages over these telephones is estimated to be 49,331,000 per day.

The telephone systems reporting an annual income of less than $5,000 in New Hampshire, including Farmers or Rural lines, is given at sixty-two, with 3,965 telephones. It is interesting to note that while the number of rural systems, or lines increased, the number of rural telephones show a decrease of 73.2 per cent in the past five years.

"MA SWEET"

June 11 Wallack Temple has a show. Such a thing has not happened for years. And you are hereby invited to go. And help shed joyful tears. "Ma" Sweet seldom takes the whole bunch at once. But they'll all be there that night. The "twins" will do heart rending stunts. Betty Belinda faints from fright. Arlidity Ann will sing, making high notes wobble. Francis Fedory is a sweet and love sick lass. Giordanna Galabour will give her cunning giggle. Elizabeth Eliza leads the education class. So come to our "Sweet Show." The Sweets will all be there. It will only cost a nickel and two dimes. But don't cher-care! For if you'll come 'tween six o'clock and eight, You can get your supper there. NEWCASTLE.

GREENLAND HAS ELECTRIC LIGHTS

The town of Greenland has added another of the modern improvements, when on Tuesday the Rockingham Light and Power company completed their line to that town, and connected up one house that was ready for the electricity. A great many of the property owners are having their houses and barns wired and in a few weeks they will all be connected up. The town has appropriated enough for six street lights which will be installed as soon as possible.

ROOSEVELT GUEST OF KING AND QUEEN

Madrid, June 9.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt was today the luncheon guest of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria of Spain at their summer palace of La Granja, forty miles from Madrid. Accompanied by Ambassador Willard and the staff of the American embassy, the colonel left Madrid early in the morning in an automobile. He and King Alfonso are old acquaintances, having met at the funeral of King Edward VII in London.

PRESIDENT'S FAREWELL ADDRESS TO STUDENTS

New Hampshire College, Durham, N. H., June 9.—President Churchill gave his farewell address to the seniors here today when the members of 1914 had their annual class exercises in the gymnasium. The president told those on the eve of graduation to go out in a humble spirit into a world where there is no provision for cuts, no lenient dean to accept excuses, and no one to depend upon but themselves. He concluded them, however, to go out with justifiable pride. He told them to go out with kindly spirit, but to go out also with courage. He urged each man to make every effort to increase his acquaintance, as acquaintances, he said, are spies to ambition, and no man can be self-sufficient.

The welcome to the visitors who thronged the hall was made by W. H. L. Brackett, of Greenland, and L. A. Riffard, of Lakeport, delivered the address to the faculty and undergraduates. F. C. Smith, of Durham, read the class history, and G. L. Ham, of Tiltonborough, the class will.

After the reading of the war the class marched over to the northwest corner of Thompson Hall where the class ivy was planted. Classes for several years have followed this custom and in time the big building will be completely draped in greenery. After an address by J. H. Anna, of Manchester, the other members of the class filed past the ivy plant and packed the earth around its roots.

This morning the faculty baseball team defeated the senior class team in a game which was too much for the sophomores and freshmen had their annual match.

Members of the faculty have presented a handsome silver loving cup to Professor Forrest E. Cardullo of the department of mechanical engineering. Professor Cardullo has been a member of the faculty since he came to Durham and he leaves here this fall to take a chair in the Texas Agricultural College.

Landon Thompson, former state senator, colonel on the staff of the governor, and secretary of the college trustees for many years, is in Durham on a visit from his home in Denver, Colorado. Colonel Thompson was long a resident of this town, and is author of a history of Durham.

SAYS SULPHUR IS SURE TO RELIEVE ITCHING ECZEMA

Get an Ounce of Bold-Sulphur Cream and Heal Skin Eruptions Right Up

Any breaking out or irritation on the face, arms, legs or body when accompanied by itching, or when the skin is dry and feverish, can be readily overcome by applying a little Bold-Sulphur cream, says a noted dermatologist.

He informs us that bold-sulphur instantly allays the angry irritation and soothes and heals the Eczema right up leaving the skin clear and smooth. Bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position for many years in the treatment of cutaneous disorders because of its parasite-destroying property. Nothing has ever been found to take its place in treating the irritable and inflammatory skin affections. While not always establishing a permanent cure, it never fails to subside the itching irritation and drive the Eczema away and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

Those troubled should obtain at any pharmacy an ounce of bold-sulphur cream which is applied to the affected parts in the same manner as an ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded, particularly in itching Eczema, proves very welcome.

FLAG DAY AT MANCHESTER

Portsmouth Will Send a Large Representation to Take Part in the Event

Portsmouth will send a large delegation to Manchester to take part in the Flag day observance on Monday next.

A special train will leave here at 6:40 for the accommodation of the First Company, U. S. A. C. and the other three companies of the coast guard. Provisions have also been made for the members of Lucius Company U. S. K. P. Captain John S. Carr, to go on this train.

Portsmouth Lodge, B. P. O. E., is planning to send a good sized delegation, which will go on the special train with the members of Dover Lodge, which will be run via this city.

Many of our citizens are planning to visit Manchester on this occasion and will make the trip on the regular train which leaves here at 8:45 o'clock.

Whatever doubts may have been entertained about the presence of the president in Manchester are now dis-polled. Nothing, apparently, can mar the plans for the Flag day celebration, and Manchester and the entire state is now looking forward to the greatest day and the greatest patriotic outburst in the history of the commonwealth.

There will be thousands of marching bands brought from every corner of this and other states, a monster band which is already being planned for and under way, one of the greatest displays of fireworks the city or state has ever seen, a flag raising with speeches by the chief of the nation and other noted public men, and concerns in all parts of the city and finally in the great magnet the presence of the president himself.

The fireworks display will be given simultaneously in two sections of the city which are to be named later, but this much has been decided. One-half of the display will be given at some point of vantage in West Manchester or Methuen, while the remainder will be set off at a point on the east side of the river, so that both Manchester proper and West Manchester will be included in the scope of the day's activities. There will be band concerts at both points.

The general orders regarding the parade, its route, the number of divisions, place of review by the president, the order of formation, the marshals of each division and the staffs of the chief marshals and the division marshals are expected to be issued by Adjutant General Herbert E. Tuthery by Thursday.

MONTHLY HIKES RETAINED

Naval and marine corps officers have been expecting that Secretary Daniels would amend the order which requires them to walk ten miles once a month to demonstrate their physical fitness. The former surgeon general of the navy, Dr. C. F. Stokes, urged that the system be changed, and it was expected that his successor, Surgeon General Braisted, would renew his recommendation. Mr. Daniels has signified his intention of adhering to the monthly hike, believing there is nothing unreasonable in the requirement, although naval officers have suggested amending the regulations to him.

When officers are on board ship in Mexican waters it is more or less difficult to comply with this requirement, but the deck space is used when the officers cannot go on shore long enough to do the walk. The monthly walk is looked upon as a nuisance. There is an annual physical examination, which is conducted with great care by the medical officers.

DOVER POLICE MADE A MISTAKE

An automobile party from this city were held up at Dover last week for lack of plate numbers. The driver had his number on pastboard on the car, and explained to the police that he had applied for a license and had been told to use these substitutes until his plates could be sent out. The Dover police finally got in touch with Secretary of State Pearson who said that the owner of the car was right. His application had been granted and he was entitled to the numbers he was carrying until his plates arrived. The party were then released with apologies.

BORN WHALE KILLER

Those who feel that they have not hit upon their true vocation in life may be reminded that Mr. Landon Thompson possessed some gift peculiar to himself. The only difficulty was to discover it. And Landon illustrated his point with the story of a young man whose apparent incapacity in every business to which he was put reduced his friends to despair. Finally as a forlorn hope he was sent to sea on a whaler. Arrived at the whaling grounds he prevailed upon the harpooner to give him the use of a harpoon. And then came a revelation. Incompetent in all else the young fellow showed astonishing skill with the whaleman's weapon. He was in fact a born whale killer, and rose in the world accordingly. London Chronicle.

TO SECURE UNIFICATION OF THE TIME

Washington, June 9.—The action of the Senate in ratifying the convention providing for the organization of an International Time Association created considerable interest in scientific circles here today. Relief was expressed that this step would give impetus to the movement to secure unification of time throughout the world. Twenty-four other countries have subscribed to the convention and are expected to follow the lead of the United States in ratifying the instrument. Other Nations are admirable.

The object of the association is the unification of time by the use of wireless telegraphy or other signals, whether they be of extreme precision or ordinary signals.

In ratifying the convention the Senate made these reservations:

First.—That the United States may send time signals from such radio stations of its own as it may designate, and at such time as it may decide upon.

Second.—That it may be free to use in sending radio time signals, the method that it has used in the past, or such modification thereof as may seem to be desirable.

Third.—That it is to be understood that in agreeing to this convention, the United States Government does not undertake to exercise any control over private radio stations, that may possibly be contemplated beyond what is permissible under existing laws.

The countries, in addition to the United States which subscribed to the convention in Paris, Oct. 25 last, were Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Chile, Cuba, Denmark, Ecuador, Spain, France, Great Britain, Greece, Guatemala, Italy, Liberia, Mexico, Nicaragua, Netherlands, Portugal, Russia, Serbia, Sweden, Switzerland and Uruguay.

UNITED STATES WILL NOT DEMAND WAR INDEMNITY

Willing to Stand Great Loss if Star Government Can Be Established in Mexico--The Mexican Gunboats Leave Tampico.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 9. Mexico will not be asked by the United States to pay war indemnity.

The Huerta Government has learned through the American delegates that the Wilson Administration will be content to have set up in Mexico a stable government to succeed Huerta.

An intimation that the United States would not demand reparation for the losses sustained at Vera Cruz or expect to be recompensed for the enormous expenditures already made in an attempt to pacify Mexico was given to the Mexican delegates soon after the conference opened. This made it easy for the opposing delegates to meet harmoniously.

It was responsible, largely, for the ease with which a general understanding was reached between them, and it lent consistency to the American demand that consideration be given to the Constitutional cause. The submission yesterday of the American plan, accompanied by verbal statements from the delegates of the United States, removed all doubt that this country was not disposed to make any unnecessary drain upon Mexican already depleted finances.

GREAT RELIEF IS FELT

Departure of Mexican Warships From Tampico Removes Probability of Failure of Mediation.

Washington, June 9. It would be difficult to exaggerate the relief all-ed Washington feels from the White House and the Secretary of State's department, through the Cabinet offices, and in both branches of Congress, over the withdrawal by President Huerta of the order to blockade the port of Tampico, for the purpose of preventing the unloading of the Anitilla, of the Ward Line, which cleared from New York about a week ago, with a cargo of arms for the Constitutionalists.

For several days there has been a growing uneasiness in diplomatic circles which felt that the Mexican situation was on the verge of "breaking" on account of Gen. Huerta's order to his diminutive navy to keep the Anitilla out of Tampico Harbor. It was believed that the fate of mediation, which has been hanging in the balance for a week, would be sealed if the threatened Tampico incident was not avoided. Consequently the news of the suspension of the blockade was promulgated from the White House and the Secretary of State's office with unexampled gratification.

Bryan Declines to Give Out News.

Mr. Bryan declined to discuss the Anitilla incident in any way. He would neither confirm nor deny when asked whether or not the State Department and any recent negotiations with Huerta which resulted in the latter's change of front. The only thing the secretary would say, when he was asked directly if the department knew on Sunday that the Mexican decree would order a suspension of the blockade, was that on Sunday night the department was "hopeful."

Mr. Bryan regards the Anitilla incident as closed. In so far as further movements of that vessel will affect the peace negotiations under way at Niagara Falls. Nor would the secretary express any opinion where and when the cargo of the Anitilla, which is due to reach Tampico Wednesday morning, would be landed.

The Navy Department received a message from Admiral Bahier that a conference had been held yesterday between Admiral Mayo, on the Anitilla, and the captains of the Zaragoza and Bravo. This conference, however, was held several hours after Washington had received notification of the suspension of the blockade.

Sec. of the Navy Daniels, when asked directly if he knew in advance of the receipt of the information from Tampico that Huerta had decided to provide in his determination to prevent the landing of the Anitilla, frankly replied in the negative, so that if the hopefulness in the State Department of Sunday night was based on definite information that information had not been generally disseminated in Cabinet circles.

Pressure From Niagara Falls.

There is considerable speculation about the motives which influenced Huerta to call off the blockade and the general belief is that the real influence came from Niagara Falls, where the mediators and the Mexican delegates had been urging him in the strongest terms possible to rescind the order so that the negotiations could proceed.

Reports have come from Niagara Falls that the South American envoys personally are inclined to consider at an end their efforts to bring Carranza into the proceedings unless he agrees to an armistice. The mediators stated they would make public all the correspondence that had passed between them and the Constitutionalists.

Constitutionalist agents here expected to hear from Carranza today, and belief was expressed that the events of the next 48 hours would determine the scope of mediation.

"SAFETY FIRST!" DURING VACATION.

Outline of Final Talk by Teachers to Children at the Close of the Boston Public Schools, June, 1914.

Issued by the Boston Chamber of Commerce with the approval and cooperation of the Superintendent of Schools.

Vacation time in the city is full of accident dangers for children. It means playing in the streets, constant crossing of them to reach parks and playgrounds, frequent use of electric cars, etc. In short, it is out-of-door time for the children when the spirit of play, the relaxation of holidays and the absence of school discipline, leave children more exposed to the ever-present dangers of accidents than at any other time of the year. The public schools of Boston have done much toward the prevention of street accidents for children, but a final warning given to children before they leave school to remember "Safety First" during the summer will be timely and effective.

This final warning to the children might well be given in the form of suggestions rather than instructions, so that vivid mental pictures may be created. Safety suggestions should be positive rather than negative. Put in the children's minds the "Dons" rather than the "Don'ts"; as for instance, emphasizing the need of being careful rather than of not being careless; of keeping away from teams instead of not meddling with them.

The teachers in the public schools can perform a very real service to the community by bringing this "Safety First" message to the children before they leave for the summer. Each teacher will best know how to reach her own class, but a few points are suggested below for talks to the younger and older children.

Points for Younger Children.

1. A motto somewhat as follows, to be written on the blackboard for recitation, etc.: "I am going to try this summer to remember about safety in the streets, to look both ways before crossing them, and not to play in them."

2. A short explanation of how street accidents happen:

(a) By not looking both ways before starting across the street.

(b) By starting to run across carelessly, and then getting frightened and trying to run back. Children need never be afraid of cars or automobiles if they are only careful.

(c) By playing in the streets--"catching on" cars and wagons, roller skating, playing tag, etc.

Story of two children "playing horse," started to cross a track ahead

You swing on "joy makin's!"

Get it into your mind pretty quick that Prince Albert is just as bully delicious rolled up into a cigarette as jammed into a jimmy pipe--and that means going some, too.

Just to change your luck, switch for a spell from the dust-brands and fire-brands and know first hand what a real and true jimmy pipe or makin's cigarette can taste like when you get the brand of tobacco that men everywhere pin their faith to-- the national joy smoke

PRINCE ALBERT

It's all out of fashion to suffer with a stung tongue or a parched throat. Because Prince Albert is scot-free from that sort of thing.

If you didn't know it before, get this news direct from headquarters: Prince Albert tobacco is made by a patented process that cuts out the bite and the parch. It's just all-good, with a flavor and a fragrance and freshness unequalled by any other brand at any price!

Men, that's some talk some talk, but it's right and it's up to you to match a dime against our say-so.

Just lay a bet right here that P. A. will give you absolutely what you've hunted for years, either in a pipe or a cigarette. And that goes! Right now's the time, too, while the "listen" is in your system.

Buy P. A. everywhere; in tippy red bags, 5c; in tidy red tins, 10c; also in handsome pound and half pound humidor jars.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO.
Winston-Salem, N. C.

of a car, the child holding the reins as "driver" ran back, pulling the child who was the "horse" with the reins under the car.

(d) By jumping on and off cars when they are going. By starting to go behind cars or automobiles without stopping to see what is coming on the other side.

3. What "Safety First" means. How parents can help their children. See that the children take home the printed letters to their fathers and mothers, and bring back the signed snobs. Have children ask their parents to help them remember "Safety First" during the summer.

Points for Older Children.

1. Motto for blackboard--"Better be safe than sorry!"

2. Short explanation of how street accidents happen. (See 2 above).

3. An appeal to the older children's sense of responsibility for their little brothers and sisters and other little children, not only in setting a good example by being careful themselves all the time, but also in seeing that the little children keep off the streets and in helping them to cross the streets in safety.

4. An appeal to the children's sense of prowess. Why are the "Boy Scouts" so much admired? Because they serve others. Older children can act as "Street Scouts" for the younger children. Everyone will respect and admire them for doing this.

5. An appeal to the older children's pride as "Young Citizens" who can do just as much, or even more, than grown-ups in making Boston the safest city for children in the world. Think what a famous city Boston would be if no children were killed or hurt on its streets for a whole year!

6. An appeal to the children's sense of fair play. Is it fair to cause others unhappiness and misery because you are careless?

7. Ask the children to take home printed letter to their parents, and have them read it. Snobs to be signed and returned.

NOTED SINGER IS DIVORCED FROM HUSBAND

Chicago, June 9. Miss. Ernestine Schumann-Heink was today granted a divorce from her husband, William Rapp Jr., whose ardent epistles to Mrs. Catherine Dean of New York were the sensation of the city.

The victory for the famous contralto came when Superior Judge Sullivan instructed the jury which had heard the case to return a verdict in favor of the complainant.

The divorce hearing was marked principally by the emotional letters written by Rapp to Mrs. Catherine Dean of New York and the repeated intimations that the defense would prove allegations which would offset the conduct charged against her husband.

No attempt was made to contradict the authenticity of the letters credited to Rapp, and the evidence of the defense failed to show moral delinquency on the part of the opera singer.

Miss. Schumann-Heink showed her joy at the verdict and declared that she would speedily journey to the Bayreuth Wagnerian festival, in which she is to take a leading part.

NO MYSTERY IN BONDS

I have received a reprint of a summary article written by an investment expert of Seattle. It is simple, readable and sound. For example:

"There is no mystery about a bond. It is merely some one's promise to pay with security to compel performance. It requires no technical training or adeptness in the most mysterious art of finance to adjudge the merit of such an investment. Of a bond, just as of a simple loan to your neighbor, you inquire: Whom am I lending to? What security is he giving me? When do I get paid? And what do I get for the accommodation? To be a good investment, a bond, like any other loan must answer these questions unequivocally and satisfactorily. You can ask them as well as the most eminent financier, and when they have been answered to your intelligent satisfaction, you have made a safe investment."

If you should ask these four questions and insist upon getting right answers and then verifying the truth of the answers, I don't imagine you would buy very many stocks, and I know that you wouldn't fall into the net of the get-rich-quick promoter. That test would keep you in the class of wise investors who confine themselves to making loan investments.

Applying this banker's test, you would place your money for a definitely limited time in the hands of some borrower who could show that he was able to use it profitably, and you'd soon realize that at the bottom of sound investment lies one big question:

"Who is the borrower?"

Businessmen advise you to look into the soundness of body and of mind of the young man who seeks to marry your daughter. You see the logic of that. So the successful expert advises you to look carefully into the moral and financial soundness and capacity of the borrower who wants to take your money to use.

In answering your four questions, the borrower should show ample security to insure the return of the money; he should show that he can repay when he promises, and he must offer a reasonable reward for the use of your money.

Think over this simple test.

CROY ON CAFETERIAS

What One Writer Thinks About the Principal Division of Los Angeles People

The principal division of Los Angeles people is eating in cafeterias. I don't know anything about cafeterias until I got to Los Angeles and acted as my own waiter and messenger boy. You walk down the aisle to where there is a stack of trays, take one and then pick up a napkin. In this are rolled a knife, a fork and a couple of spoons. You fall into line, sliding your tray along the railing and picking out the things that you yearn for most.

They have the prettiest girls behind the dishes. The managers seem to have searched everywhere to get the prettiest they could find, but I don't see where they come out ahead on it. I was always clear past the dishes, away down at the end of the line, before I would notice what was on the counter. But that is my favorite way of going hungry.

Even when they have boys and you look along the dishes carefully, you always discover when you get down at the end of the line that there is something that you want back at the beginning and that there are a dozen persons between you and the dish.

You get a plate of soup here, run over to Hollywood for asparagus then back to town for a plate of plums. By the time your tray is filled you are weary and travel-stained. You try to hurry on, but there is always a thick, heavy-set man in front of you who is trying to buy them out. After the thick, heavy-set man has bid in his summer stock you slide your tray along till you come to a girl sitting behind a pile of chips. She keeps staring at your tray till you begin to wonder where she was raised, when she hands you a slip of what you owe. This is to be paid as you go out. It always ends in odd cents—never in five or ten. A person always thinks that he is going off more cheaply when it ends in nine.

—Homer Crox, in Leslie's Magazine.

SNOW ON CHAMPS ELYSEES

Horses Struggle Through June Drifts in Paris

Paris, June 9.—Two and a half inches of snow and hail fell in one section of Paris last evening, and the amazing spectacle was witnessed of horses struggling through snow on a June day in the Avenue des Champs Elysees. The air had in it a wintry chill, the temperature being forty degrees Fahrenheit, and here and there quantities of the snow lay throughout the night where it had drifted.

GUILD FAVORS ACADEMY OF DIPLOMACY

Establishment of an American National Academy of Diplomacy on lines similar to those of West Point and the Naval Academy at Annapolis, was advocated in Chicago last night by Curtis Guild of Massachusetts, in an address before the Chicago Bar Association. American soldiers have the best possible education," said Mr. Guild. "It is more necessary that American diplomats should receive a thorough technical training. It is an international proverb that Russia has gained more by diplomacy than she has lost by war. The public is entitled to such a school, not only because America would be better represented abroad but because the diplomatic and consular services would thus be thrown open on a competitive basis. To all American citizens as are the army and navy," Mr. Guild insisted that, to make reforms in the diplomatic service effective, the service must be taken out of public altogether and placed on a basis like that of the army and navy, so that it would constitute a life career for first-class men. Salaries commensurate with the expenses of the positions carrying them and suitable quarters abroad were other demands of the speaker.

REPAIRS HELD UP

Spring repairs of United States war craft are being held up at Charleston navy yard pending the outcome of the mediation conference at Niagara.

Repairs on the scout cruiser Birmingham, the tender Dixie, known as the "mother ship" and the five torpedo boat destroyers, Annapolis, Harrow, Trippe, Blundell and Patterson were not begun and according to reports will not be started until the Mexican situation is more definitely cleared.

Repairs on these ships are more than a month late. Their annual spring repairs were due the first of May. It would take two weeks or more to repair the torpedo boat destroyers and more than one month to repair the Birmingham. It is said that in case of trouble with Mexico the torpedo boat destroyers would be of more value to the country in many ways than the super-dreadnaughts, New York and Texas.

The first class battleship Rhode Island and Captain C. C. Williams, which returned from Mexico four months ago for repairs is ready for action. It is said, her guns are in trim. She has been painted gray and can proceed on whatever duty assigned on short notice.

The torpedo boat destroyer Duncan is in drydock for a general overhaul. The Duncan is the largest craft of her kind.

The scout cruiser Chester, Commander W. A. Moffett, is enroute from Mexico for repairs. She has been doing service at Mexico for the past month. The Chester carries 15 guns and 373 men and officers.

HAMLIN DROPPING OUT

Washington, June 9.—It was announced at the White House today that it probably would be several days before the President and the secretary of the treasury are ready to make known the names of the two additional members of the Federal Reserve Board. It now seems assured that E. C. Stannard of St. Louis will be one of the members, but the appointment of Charles S. Hamlin, assistant secretary of the treasury, who had been under consideration does not now seem to be likely. It generally is believed that a man will be named who has not yet been suggested publicly in connection with the board.

MIDSHIPMEN ON THEIR ANNUAL CRUISE ABROAD

Washington, June 9. The itinerary of the midshipmen's practice cruise of the Naval Academy, which sailed from Annapolis June 7, bound for Naples, Italy, was announced today by the Navy Department. En route to Naples where the squadron is due June 25, a stop of two days probably will be made at Gibraltar, where the vessels will coal. From Naples the midshipmen will sail July 3 for Graveyard, Eng., and are due to reach there July 13.

On their homeward journey the midshipmen will sail from Graveyard July 27, and are due to arrive at Hampton Roads Aug. 11 thus completing their long journey. At Hampton Roads the vessels, after taking on coal will engage in target practice off the Virginia Capes. The squadron will return to Annapolis Aug. 30.

The squadron consists of the battleships Missouri, Idaho and Illinois, and is under command of Capt. W. F. Fullam, superintendent of the Naval Academy. There are in all about 650 midshipmen representing the first, second and third classes, and they will do work of every character on board.

AFTER BRYAN'S LECTURE GOAT

Washington, June 9. Secretary Bryan's lecture hour dropped up in the House again yesterday, when Representative Britton of Illinois, Republican, introduced a bill to make it a penal offense for any cabinet officer, head or clerk of a Government department to lecture for pay, other than actual hotel and traveling expenses, and to prohibit senators or representatives from lecturing for pay while Congress is in session. Offenders would be fined $10,000 or imprisoned for two years or suffer both penalties.

Mr. Britton introduced a broadside in a statement accompanying his bill, in which he attacked the political party and included Senator La Follette and Representative Murdock. He said: "This bill was prepared last September, but was not introduced when Secretary Bryan formerly declared that he would lecture no more during the period. The recent announcement from Philadelphia that several members of Congress and the distinguished Secretary of State had signed contracts for a period of lectures beginning July 1, is responsible for my bill. I am at a loss to understand how the Secretary can consistently leave his office when a state of war practically exists between this country and Mexico and the foreign policy of our Government is being laughed at by every civilized nation on earth. This certainly is no time for Mr. Bryan to be hiding around the country doing one-night stands with Tyrolean yodlers, cantonists and sleight of hand artists, and I am equally opposed to members of Congress doing this sort of thing when Congress is in session. The Philadelphia announcement declared that Secretary Bryan, Senator La Follette and Congressman Murdock had signed contracts for lectures beginning July 1. Speaker Clark last year cancelled contracts at a loss to him of $10,000 on account of his aversion to being away from Congress. I purpose to ask the House Judiciary Committee for a hearing, with a view to some action along this line."

The second cruiser Chester, Commander W. A. Moffett, is enroute from Mexico for repairs. She has been doing service at Mexico for the past month. The Chester carries 15 guns and 373 men and officers.

P. A. C. TAKE GAME FROM THE MARINES

Lear Gives Marines a Good Lead in First, But Hits When Needed Won the Game.

The Marines dropped another game in the Sunset League on Wednesday evening, when, after having a lead of three runs in the first inning and holding it to the fourth, they lost out to the P. A. C. who after the first inning played good ball and in the fourth and fifth had the bats when they were most needed. Newark in the fourth with a man on third, walked a long ball to right which was good for three bases and he went home when McCord allowed the throw in to go to the bleachers and Ralph Brackett in the fifth, with two men on, hit a clean single over second which started Woods and Lear to score from third and second.

Bennett pitched fine ball for the Marines until the last inning when he was pulled out after Brackett's out and Christie took his place.

Lear started for the P. A. C. but he was very wild and after allowing two hits he hit four men and these with two wild pitches resulted in the three runs. Lear took his place and he was very effective allowing but one hit and passing but one man. Left Brackett was absent from short and Lear started in that position but gave way to Trueman and Lear went to center. The Athletics play fast ball, but they were a little slack in running bases, three being caught napping at second.

The Game in Detail

FIRST INNING

The Marines won the toss and the Athletics were up. Howard was thrown out by Moser. R. Brackett grounded to McCord who broke the ball which Moser relayed to first in time and Newark fled to Berg in center.

Letch started with a single, he advanced on Mims being hit and Mims was caught off first by a snap throw of R. Brackett to Newark Moser started advancing Letch and a wild pitch scored him, Moser going to second. Moll was hit, two wild pitches scored Moser and placed Moll on third and he stole home, McCord was hit, stole second and went to third on Brackett's overthrow, McCord was hit and McCord being pulled off third base by a throw to first, was run down by R. Brackett and his brother Ralph. Lear went to pitch and Berg fanned. Three runs.

SECOND INNING. Trueman fanned, Linskey beat on a bunt laid down in front of the plate and he was forced at second on R. Brackett's grounder to McCord. R. Brackett stole second but was caught off the base, Bennett hit Letch.

Strand was thrown out by Lear, Bennett struck out and Letch drew a pass, but Mims was thrown out, Howard to Newark.

THIRD INNING

Woods hit to Moser who beat him to first, Lear fled to Berg, Lear reached first on Mims' fumble and he stole second but he was caught standing on the edge of the base. Letch.

FOURTH INNING

The three run lead of the Marines looked big until Howard beat out a grounder to Moser, and stole second, moving up to third when McCord overthrew the base. R. Brackett struck out, Newark hit a long fly along the right field foul line which was good for three bases, and on the throw in, which shot past McCord to second, Trueman beat out an infield hit and turned his ankle on first. He asked for a runner and Mims of the Marines showed what kind of a sport he was by calling for Newark who had just singled the bases and was out of breath and when he could not run refused him a runner. The result was that Trueman was forced at second on Linskey's grounder to Moser, Linskey stole second and C. Brackett retired the side by striking out. Two runs.

McCord grounded to Howard who fumbled and M. Bennett was called safe, but he was caught off first a second later. Berg fanned, Strand singled and was thrown out stealing second.

FIFTH INNING

R. H. Woods was hit and stole second, Lear fanned, Lear drew a pass, Howard hit a savage drive at Bennett which he stopped and recovered in time to get Howard at first, but Woods and Lear moved up one, Ralph Brackett lined a single to center which scored Woods and Lear and Newark retired the side, Letch to Mims. Two runs.

Letch stiffened up and struck out, Holland a punch hitter and Letch and Mims was thrown out by Howard.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts Before Breakfast if Your Back Hurts or Bladder is Troubling You

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headache, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will get fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation thus causing bladder weakness.

REMOVES DISABILITY ON NAVY ENGINEERS

Line officers of the navy as distinguished from the line officers who were formerly of the Naval Engineer Corps are much concerned over the fate of a Senate amendment to the next appropriation bill which removes existing restrictions imposed by law on a Navy Department interpretation of the law limiting the duty to which officers "who now perform engineering duty on shore only" may be assigned.

The new provision makes them eligible for any shore duty compatible with their rank and grade to which the Secretary of the Navy may assign them. While this makes no requirement of the duty to which the officers may be assigned, it is quite evident to their associates of the line that these former engineers are preparing to become eligible as commandants of navy yards, to which duty they may not now be detailed. All officers of this class, twenty in number are rear admirals or senior captains, there being five in the former grade. In due time at least two of them will become senior in the grade of rear admiral. At present it is difficult to find duty on shore commensurate with their rank. One of these officers is engineer-in-chief of the navy, another is director of navy yards and a third is head of the inspection board and all are experienced engineers of great value to the navy. It is understood that the Secretary of the Navy is in favor of extending the law to have these officers available for duty as commandants of navy yards or as heads of the industrial branches of the navy yards.

RESOLUTE WINS ANOTHER RACE

Defiance Meets With Accident in Her First Effort to Show Racing Ability.

Sandy Hook, N. J., June 10.—Following accidents which retarded the Defiance in her first efforts to show her racing abilities today and left to her rival club-class sloops Resolute and Vanitie, a 30 mile dash over a windward and leeward course of Sandy Hook. The Resolute won by seven minutes and 29 seconds, corrected time.

Defiance broke one of her aluminum blocks and pulled a strap on her hove-rop but her owners expect her to be in condition to race tomorrow.

Resolute covered the 15 miles to windward and return in three hours, 16 minutes, 41 seconds, the fastest time ever made over such an American cup course.

The regatta committee announced that Vanitie allowed Resolute three minutes 13 seconds. This was the first time that the time allowance has been openly stated.

Resolute captured the weather berth at the line and led from the start. She increased her lead to 4 minutes, 15 seconds in the 15 mile thrust to windward against a twelve knot south wester. The Hirschhoff creation also outran the Goshier boat for the first time today, adding 31 seconds to her lead in the upwind run. The race was called in a steady breeze.

LOCAL BOYS AMONG THE N. H. COLLEGE GRADUATES

New Hampshire College, Durham, N. H., June 10.—A class of 31 men and one woman was graduated here today at the 41th commencement of New Hampshire College. The diplomas were presented by President Fairchild and the address on "The Fine Art of Living," was given by the Rev. Dr. George A. Gordon, of the New Old South church of Boston. The one woman in the class, Miss Frances Augusta Nudd, of Hampton N. H., not only received her degree of bachelor of science but took special honors, and her approach to receive her diploma was the signal for an outburst of applause.

Dr. Gordon, in his address on "The Fine Art of Living," gave as his final admonition to the class, "Go out and add to the human worth of your generation." He said that the great things of life existed first as dreams, but then by men been transformed into realities, and had subsequently had an existence quite independent of their creators but none the less of agreeable influence. He urged his hearers to be of the creators and not of the spectators; urged them to have the vision and actualize it, and to accept nothing from themselves as final, finally which shall be below their best. In conclusion he laid emphasis on the fact that everything in the Manchester and New Hampshire was considerably stirred up this morning by a news item in a Boston paper which stated that President Wilson had practically decided that it would be impossible to follow out his arranged plans and visit Manchester on Flag Day. The Washington correspondent for the paper went on to state that the mediation situation of Niagara Falls might reach an amicable stage in the next ten days, and that for this reason the chief executive would be forced to cancel all former plans.

The news reached the Bliss Flag Day committee this morning and four telegrams were dispatched at once to the New Hampshire delegation at Washington. By noon the above replies had been received, putting the members of the group on "Baker street again and practically assuring them that the president would be on hand.

REBELS MAY CUT OFF RAILROAD

Under the direction of Walter M. Douglas, undergraduates here last night gave a presentation of Planchette to a crowded house. The singing and acting was unusually good and the principals were supported by a vigorous and carefully trained chorus.

R. J. Hughes, 1916, of Claremont, as the Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., gave an exceedingly pleasing presentation of "The ruler of the Queen's naves" and sang well. Miss Julia Roberts, of Durham, as Josephine was charming in both her singing and acting and won much applause for her handling of her difficult part. Miss Alice Threlkott, of Lakeport, made little Buttercup the daintiest of coquettes and sang sweetly her famous little song. Miss Marion Gilson, of Windham, as Hebe, was a delicious first cousin to Sir Joseph Porter and in the name of his sisters and his cousins and his aunts gave him loyal support. Other members of the cast were: Genevieve A. J. Charbonneau, Marion O. Chase Helen B. Weston, Hendelita C. Nudd, Nellie L. White, Nellie E. Finley, Louise E. Roper, Alice J. Hall, Edith W. LAUNCH OF THE NEVADA JULY 11

Mr. Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, was advised by the Fore River Ship & Engine Company of Quincy, Mass., that the new battleship Nevada will be launched July 11 next at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The Nevada is a sister ship of the battleship Oklahoma, which was launched on March 23 last at Camden, N. J. The keel of the Nevada was laid on Nov. 2, 1912, and it is expected that she will be ready for service in January, 1915. Mr. Daniels has decided to attend the launching of the Nevada after which he will make a speech at the opening of the naval war college at Newport, R. I.

Four minor appropriations bills were signed yesterday by Governor Glenn at Albany before he left for New York to begin a speaking tour of a week. One permits the comptroller to negotiate a loan of $100,000 to place the national guard on an active footing whenever, in the opinion of the governor, it is advisable. This bill was passed when it appeared that the national guard troops might be called for Mexican service.

Responsibility of Labor.

In an address the other day a Boston agitator declared that farm work is no cure for unemployment, and, considering the question in its popular sense, he was right. The idea that the labor situation in the cities can be relieved to any extent by pushing the idle men out upon the farms is erroneous, for the reasons mentioned by the speaker, which are that a great majority of the men have no knowledge whatever of farm work and would be hardly able to earn their board; that most of them who should try the experiment would have to be separated from their families and that active farm operations last only about half of the year. There are other reasons which render impracticable the scheme of relieving the congestion of the city labor markets by an overflow to the farms, so that as an immediate remedy such a step is out of the question.

But why should there be such a rush to the cities as to drain the farms of needed help and seriously overstock the labor market except in boom times? That there has been such a movement for years is notorious and the consequence is that in the winter season and at times when for any reason there is a slack in business there is more or less lack of employment, though it is to be believed this is never so great as is represented by the agitators and men who are willing to work only at their own particular kinds of work and on their own terms.

The men who complain of unemployment overlook one important fact. When the market for anything but labor becomes overstocked prices come down and many people buy who would not otherwise do so because prices are low. Not so in the labor market. There the hours and wages are as rigid as flint, regardless of the demand. If a householder wants a few rooms papered and painted, or any other odd job done, he cannot take advantage of a lull in business and have the work done at a reduced price. The terms of labor are as stiff as in times of the greatest rush and men will permit themselves and their families to suffer rather than yield a single iota from the schedule of hours and wages.

Farmers cannot do business in that way. If there is a big crop down goes the price and they have to take what they can get. It is the same with the manufacturer, except that he can curtail production and thereby bring about an equilibrium to some extent. But labor never yields a cent's worth. It prefers to "demand" work on its own terms or accept charity and rail at "conditions," for which it is itself largely responsible.

When inclined to complain of the weather we should think of "Gay Paree," where there was a heavy fall of snow and hail Monday night. Not all abominable weather conditions are confined to New England and the United States, although a great variety of the undesirable sort is developed in the course of a year.

Ex-Governor Guild of Massachusetts thinks the country should have a national academy for the training of diplomats. But there is no need of any institution for the training of candidates for diplomatic posts. There are always enough of them and they appear to be well trained in the ways of place hunting.

Hereafter hogs and other animals in transportation over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad are to receive baths when stops are made for rest and feeding. This is partly for the good of the stock, and there is also taken into consideration the comfort of passengers in dining cars when trains pass.

There is trouble in Belgium, where a printing press has been run to turn out railroad bonds, and the public has been fleeced to the amount of nearly $4,000,000. Let's see, wasn't an operation of that sort brought to light in New York some 35 or 40 years ago?

England is beginning to consider the expediency of letting the hunger strikers starve themselves to death if they see fit, a thought that occurred to the people of this country long ago. Only a very few "martyrs" will be necessary to put an end to hunger striking.

Madame Schumann-Heink has been granted a divorce from her husband, but her name will remain the same and her singing should be as sweet as ever, if not a little more so, according to the story she told the court.

A New Jersey clergyman calls on his congregation to supply him with texts. A minister who in these days can't find texts enough, in or out of the Bible, is out of his place in the pulpit.

CURRENT OPINION

Newspapers Should Make Effort in Direction of Accuracy and Fair Play.

When the well seasoned journalist hears of some new law designed to affect the newspapers he is quite certain to resent the idea without stopping to consider whether it is good, bad or indifferent. We seldom seriously consider the other side of the proposition—that a lawless and licentious press might prove worse for all concerned, and particularly for us as journalists, than no press at all.

We have not always been fair in our criticisms or take pains to admit our errors and correct them. We should let our readers know we want to be accurate. Invite them to point out errors. Correct them. Notify all news sources to make special effort in the direction of accuracy and fair play. By Isaac D. White of New York World, in address at National Newspaper Conference.

young man. The world is his to do with as he sees fit.

The young man of today is master of a business at an age when his grandfather had scarce finished an apprenticeship. Universal education and quick and cheap communication bring to the young man now a practical grasp of affairs which only long years of experience could give to our fathers 50 years ago.

This is very well to know, if the young man will also keep in mind the fact that he will not always be a young man.

In the same degree that he has opportunities when he is young he will be deprived of them when youth is gone.

It behooves him, therefore, to provide against the enforced retirement that awaits him just at the time when he may begin to feel that his experience fits him for the best work.

If he is just 20 he must get rid of the notion that he is "preparing" himself for life. It matters not who he is or what he is, he is living his life more tensely perhaps and more decisively in all probability than he will ever be doing at a later period.

If the young man is waiting for some rich relative to die and leave him capital with which to start into business "right," he had better realize that the only way to start into business right is with his two hands, and that the best capital nowadays is a combination of industry, sense, pluck and application.

The young man who has this capital needs nobody's money. He who has it will not succeed if he had a dozen fortunes as a foundation.

Money today does less for a young man who will not also do for himself than the field of aspiration, of effort and of accomplishment has immeasurably broadened and will continue to broaden than it ever did before in world history.

Money, lands, property, and all that form a smaller part in human life today than ever before. Time was when these things comprehended almost all that men knew about or strove for as men develop.

There is no man on this earth so poor, so afflicted, so narrowed by environment but that there is a field of success for him. And the time to find it and fill it is in youth. Manchester Mirror.

SIX CARS IN ONE FAMILY.

Chinese Woman Buys a Flock of Studebakers.

The rapidity with which China is rapidly receding from its century-old habits and taking on modern clothes has been often pronounced one of the twentieth century marvels. In no way has this progress been proven more forcibly than in the fact Chinese women are taking in affairs, social and political.

No longer is the gentler sex of the Orient a foot-bound, enslaved, retiring section of humanity, to be kept in subjection and to appear in public only when carefully hidden from the profane gaze of the populace.

A recent transaction in Shanghai, where a wealthy Chinese mother purchased six Studebaker cars, is the latest and most striking evidence of the effect of the emancipation of Chinese women.

During the past winter, the widow of Soong King Dong, who, previous to his death, was commander of the Russo-Chinese Bank at Shanghai and one of the city's wealthiest citizens, decided that, with her family, she could enjoy some of the pleasures pursued by her American sisters. So she purchased a Studebaker Six from Hubert S. Honigsberg, who represents the Studebaker corporation in Shanghai. Mrs. Soong immediately took her entire family, which is of characteristic Chinese proportions, out for a spin. One and all, they were completely captivated with the charms of motoring.

It happens that the four Soong sons and one daughter are each married and have a house full of little ones who are just as modern in their desires as the older folk.

Each son and the daughter managed to impress upon their good mother's intellect the importance of giving the younger generation an equal opportunity with their elders. The entire clan had become wedded to the Studebaker "Chop" so, without much ceremony, Mrs. Soong summoned Honigsberg and handed him an order for five more Studebaker cars.

Honigsberg lost no time in cabling Detroit a rush order. When these cars, along with seven other Studebakers, landed at Shanghai late in April on the steamship Empress of Asia, a great throng of interested friends were on the strand to witness the unusual sight.

The cars were landed and driven at once, filled with members of the Soong family, to the grounds of Puh Tan University, one of Shanghai's beauty spots, and a panoramic camera was brought into play.

This remarkable transaction was handled throughout by H. S. Honigsberg, an enterprising Yankee salesman.

RAILROAD NOTES

The Massachusetts public service commission is covering 135 miles of Boston and Maine railway territory on its tour of inspection on Wednesday.

The passenger conductors of the Boston and Maine are appearing in the new regulation caps.

Frank E. Black, a fireman on the Portsmouth and Concord passenger fell while walking alongside the track at Rockingham on Wednesday evening and strained the ankle of his right leg which will keep him from duty for a week or more.

A party of ticket agents of the Boston and Maine, Boston and Albany, and the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroads, leave tomorrow for a trip to Yellowstone Park.

The interstate commerce commission in investigation of derailment of a passenger train on the New Haven road on October 25, 1913, which resulted in the injury of 75 passengers and three employees, find that derailment was due to a broken rail, and that rail fractured under the train by reason of the presence of transverse fissures in its head six feet seven inches from the leaving end and five other minor transverse fissures.

The evidence, the report states, indicates that transverse fissures may be and are formed through action of high wheel loads upon hard steel rails. No remedy is pointed out to avoid such accidents.

R. G. Hall of the Boston and Maine local ticket office will be one of the party of ticket agents which leaves Boston on Friday for a western trip.

WHAT'S THE NEWS?

Each line in this newspaper is of interest to some one.

Each has been written and printed with a definite purpose.

To many men and women the most important thing this journal offers for their consideration is the advertising.

It is constructive, helpful, brightly written, often cleverly illustrated. It is all supposed to have a "punch" in it.

It is the news of business—the voice of opportunity.

To overlook reading the advertising is to neglect one of the best features in the newspaper.

REPEAL BILL IS AMENDED

Simmons-Norris Addition Is Passed in Senate, 50 to 24.

Washington, June 10.—The senate tonight adopted the Simmons-Norris amendment qualifying the Canal tolls exemption repeal bill by a vote of 50 to 24.

This was the first test vote after six weeks of debate on the repeal bill. Even the most optimistic senators who favored repeal had not expected the amendment to carry by a so large a majority. It is not believed, however, that the bill itself can be put through by so great a margin.

Nine Democratic senators, Ashurst, Martin, O'Gorman, Pomerene, Ransdell, Reed, Shields, Walsh and Williams voted against the amendment. Thirty-six Republicans, 13 Democrats and one Progressive, Poinsette, favored the bill, and 75 Republicans were against it.

Several of the Democrats are expected to vote for the repeal bill, while several Republicans who supported the amendment are expected to line up against it.

Among those voting for the bill were Senators Hollis, Johnson, Lippitt, Lodge and Weeks. Senator Gallinger voted in the negative.

The amendment as adopted reads as follows:

"Provided that the passage of the act shall not be construed as a waiver, or relinquishment of any right the United States may have with the treaty with Great Britain, ratified the 21st of February, 1902, or the treaty with the Republic of Panama, ratified February 26, 1904, or otherwise, to discriminate in favor of its vessels by exempting the vessels of the United States or its citizens from payment of tolls for passage through said canal, or as in any way waiving, impairing or affecting any right of the United States under said treaty or otherwise with the respect to the sovereignty over or the ownership, control or management of said canal and the regulation of the conditions or charges of traffic through the same."

Senators who had hoped to see the bill disposed of tonight took comfort from the decisive way in which a motion to adjourn was defeated. Senator Bristow made the motion and on a roll call the vote was 53 to 22.

The Sutherland amendment proposed as a substitute for the Simmons-Norris amendment was defeated 49 to 32. It declared that nothing in the repeal act would be considered as denying or abridging the right of the United States to discriminate in favor of American shipping, and added that on the contrary such right is re-asserted.

The repeal bill as it came to the Senate from the House read as follows:

"Be it enacted, etc., that the second sentence in section 5 of the act entitled 'an act to provide for the opening, maintenance and protection and operation of the Panama canal and the sanitation of the Canal Zone, approved August 24, 1912, which reads as follows: 'No tolls shall be levied on vessels engaged in the coastwise trade of the United States' be, and the same is hereby repealed.

"Section 2.—That the third sentence in the third paragraph of the said section of said act be so amended to read as follows: 'When based upon net registered tonnage for ships of commerce the tolls shall not exceed $1.25 per net registered ton, nor be less than seventy-five cents per net registered ton subject, however, to the provisions of article 19 of the convention between the United States and the Republic of Panama, entered into November 18, 1903.'"

A CORRECTION

As our account of the Federation of Clubs in Rye, in last night's Herald was somewhat ambiguous, we are glad to publish the following corrected account.

As a result of a very general feeling on the part of the members of three women's clubs of the town of Rye, that an affiliation would result in greater usefulness and broader development, and a wish that such an object could be attained without losing the individuality of either of the clubs, a set of resolutions framed by Mrs. Chester Drake of the Ideal Club was presented to the Every Other Tuesday, Ideal and Crescent Clubs for consideration and was unanimously adopted by each, and the suggested delegates to form a board of managers for the ensuing year appointed.

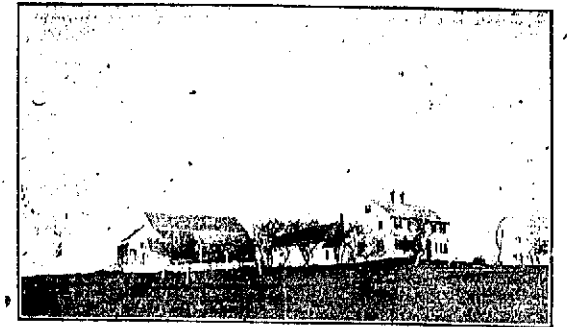

A meeting of the delegates was held on Monday and Mrs. Chester Drake was made chairman, Miss Agnes Brown, secretary. Suggestions for possible work for the federation followed and discussion as to "ways and means," after which the board adjourned until Saturday at two o'clock when the meeting will be held at the home of the chairman.

BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE.

In the matter of Rowe & Voudy, Bankrupts. In Bankruptcy. To the Honorable Edgar Aldrich, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the District of New Hampshire.

Edwin F. Rowe, of Portsmouth, in the County of Rockingham and State of New Hampshire, in said District, respectfully represents that on the 24th day of January last past, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

Wherefore he prays that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said bankrupt acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

Dated this sixth day of June, A. D. 1914. EDWIN F. ROWE, Bankrupt.

Order of Notice Thereon.

District of New Hampshire, ss. On this 9th day of June, A. D. 1914, on reading the foregoing petition, it is Ordered by the Court, that a hearing be had upon the same on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1914, before said court, at Concord, in said District, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; and that notice thereof be published in the Portsmouth Herald, a newspaper printed in said District, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the court, that the clerk shall send by mail to all known creditors notices of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

Witness the Honorable EDGAR ALDRICH, Judge of the said court, and the seal thereof, at Concord, in said District, on the 9th day of June, A. D. 1914.

MANY OUTINGS TO TAKE PLACE

Hampton Beach Will Be Favorite Resort With Many Societies.

As in former years Hampton Beach is to be the scene of numerous outings of prominent clubs and fraternal organizations to say nothing of several Sunday schools and church societies. The big Casino with its extensive accommodations and the other attractions of the resort, have made this a favored place for outings of this kind, and few summer places in the state have entered to so many excursions as have come here in the past few seasons since Hampton's charms and pleasure ground possibilities have been known.

On Thursday, June 18, the Deatucket Club of Haverhill, Mass., has engaged the Casino for the day, and the outing will be one of the most important of the summer.

any of the summer. The trip will be made in special cars and in addition to other features there will be a full program of sports.

The event is in charge of John S. Parker, chairman, and Ralph H. Taylor, secretary.

On the following day, June 19th, the annual outing of the Hampton Academy Alumni will be held here as in former seasons. Manager Nason of the Casino will serve a banquet and it is expected that there will be a large attendance. The First Baptist church and Sunday school of Haverhill is to visit the beach on Friday, June 26th and a number of special cars will transport the party. The program for the day includes various sports and contests. On June 27th the Yvona social club of Manchester will hold an outing here, while other engagements are for churches and societies in Dover, Portsmouth, Exeter, Stratham, Newburyport, Mass., and Lowell, Mass.

MISS PANKHURST AGAIN ARRESTED

Goes to Holloway Jail for Six Months on Inciting Charge.

London, June 10. Miss Sylvia Pankhurst was not even permitted to approach Westminster tonight to interview Premier Asquith. The proposed visit to the prime minister was arranged for some days ago by Miss Pankhurst and other militant leaders, and it was decided last night that she should be carried shoulder high in the procession as she was not considered strong enough to bear the strain of what promised to be an arduous journey.

Before the procession had gone a mile Miss Pankhurst was arrested for the eighth time since she was sentenced to six months imprisonment for inciting to violence in Hyde Park and conveyed to Holloway jail.

The procession struggled on without a leader but by the time it reached the Strand it had been dispersed by the police.

Under the leadership of George Lansbury, former socialist member of the house of commons, a deputation of women proceeded to parliament where they were received by P. H. Bouverie, the chief liberal whip, after having been rebuffed in all attempts to see the premier.

The procession formed, headed by Miss Pankhurst, being borne on a litter. The band struck up "Marsellaise" and the procession under a large body of mounted and foot police. The crowds grew steadily but the police had carefully laid their plans and when the procession had arrived at a point where the narrow road and the traffic compelled it to divide, a sharp command rang out.

The street was quickly cordoned by police, and after her supporters were aware of what had happened Sylvia Pankhurst was under arrest and was being whisked away in a taxi cab to jail, followed by a few shrieking women.

Disheartened at the loss of their leader the women reformed their ranks but made slow progress. A body of students attempted to interfere with them and created disturbances, both were foiled by the police who poured out in such numbers all along the route that they were quite as numerous as those in the procession.

There was little enthusiasm among the marchers and the openly expressed hostility of the populace damped the order of the demonstration so that by the time it reached the Strand, the police had little difficulty in dispersing it and preventing any reformation.

FLAG DAY.

The Herald is Supplying Many Homes With the National Emblem.

The one hundred and thirty-seventh anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes as the flag of the United States of America will be celebrated on Sunday, June 14th. The formal celebration of Flag Day will be observed on the succeeding Monday. Schools and patriotic societies will make public recognition of the day.

The observance of Flag Day is fostered by the American Flag Association which each year appeals to the schools and societies of the country to prepare special exercises in celebration. It has become a general custom to display the flag on all public buildings on that day.

The present American flag was adopted by congress on June 14, 1777, and then had 13 stars and 13 stripes, indicative of the 13 colonies. On April 4, 1818 provision was made for adding stars in all act of congress that prescribed that a star should be added for every new state. At present there are 48 stars on the flag.

Every home in the country should have its national emblem to display, not only on Flag Day but on every occasion when there is a home or national celebration and The Herald, realizing that most people want the flag of the Free in their homes, has arranged to supply the people of this section with a high grade flag of fast colors, at the low price of 63 cents, together with six coupons from The Herald.

NEWINGTON.

Children's Day will be observed on Sunday, June 14. Our pastor, Rev. Mr. Berkeley, will give a talk to the little folks. Special music appropriate to the day will be rendered. The Sunday school pupils will give a concert in the evening.

The teachers of the primary and grammar schools, the Misses Cummings and Lord, gave a picnic to the school children on Saturday afternoon at Carter's Rocks. A treat of ice cream and cake was given the children, who greatly enjoyed themselves among the rocks along the shore.

The Discalceda Grange held their regular meeting this week. The principal business of the evening was making arrangements for the second annual gratitude fair to be held on Labor Day and the day after. The general committee was appointed, and they are now appointing the committees for the different departments. More enthusiasm if possible is shown than last year, for they are going to make the fair one great success.

Claim Made at Hearing in Boston-- Stormy Days Ahead for New Haven Agreement.

Boston, June 10. There will be some rough sailing when the Federal Government agreement for the dissolution of the New Haven-Hartford & Maine Railroad merges before the Massachusetts Legislature for discussion by the Bay State lawmakers.

This was clearly foreshadowed in today's public hearing before the Committee on Railroads, at the State House. That agreement was assailed by the speakers, and unsympathetic questions were asked by committee members, until finally Representative Washburn moved the adoption of a resolution asking the Department of Justice in Washington to send an accredited representative to the Massachusetts Legislature to explain the purpose of the agreement. Senator Helyer offered the amendment that the whole committee, instead of going to Washington to "see the whole outfit," those motions threw the committee into confusion. Several members declared them to be "executive session matters." Senator Fisher moved that they be held on the table and that motion was carried.

On the heels of these motions came the threat from Representative McInerney, also a member of the committee, that "we will give you received ship," addressing the railroad stockholders who had told the committee that they were willing to take their chances with a Federal dissolution and with receivership rather than have the Legislature agree to passing the pending compromise agreement by passing the enabling legislation.

"You speak for yourself," corrected several members.

"No harm telling the people how low the committee feels," retorted McInerney.

"Your vote will not force it in a two-thirds vote," observed another.

Then the committee was broken up by the announcement of a roll call, and the hearing suspended, but in a few minutes the committee members came back and resumed.

What precipitated the motion for a resolution to the Department of Justice was an intimation which George W. Anderson of the Public Service Commission made in a guarded reply to a question from Representative Washburn. Several speakers had praised the issue of what motive underlies the selection of the Federal Court in New York as the place in which to dissolve the railroad. It had been intimated that the Federal Court in Massachusetts was the proper place for such a suit and, after considerable speculation, Mr. Anderson was asked why the New York court was selected, he having been a party to the compromise agreement that now is before the Legislature.

Mr. Anderson replied that it may have been that the Administration in Washington suspected that the Federal Court in Massachusetts was not very drastic in the enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law. He really did not know anything about it, he said, as he could not recall it having been discussed, but, when pressed for suit, and with receivership rather than have the Legislature agree to passing the pending compromise agreement by passing the enabling legislation.

"You speak for yourself," corrected several members.

"No harm telling the people how could be so that the Washington Administration feared that the Federal Court in Massachusetts, the court of natural jurisdiction, would find that the New Haven-Hartford & Maine merger was not unlawful and that it, for that reason, had selected the "packed court" of New York.

Anderson replied with some vigor that he did not subscribe to that epithet, description of the New York court, and he modified his original statement by amplifying it. He declared that he knew absolutely nothing about the reason why the New York court was selected in preference to the Massachusetts, could not recall that the question of jurisdiction had ever been raised in his presence and that he ought not to be made to speculate further into it.

But this was not the only excitement of the morning session, which was rather dull during the first hour. Dagobro Bogdan made another earnest plea for protection of the Boston & Maine stockholders, and advised the committee to summon the proper authorities and to appeal to the Public Service Commission for certain additional information. He said that the Public Service Commission has authority to find out who has been buying Boston & Maine and New Haven stock lately, and that it should be summoned to tell the committee what he knows. Mr. Bogdan declared that his information would prove something to the committee. It would show, he said, that when this wrecking business has blown over and the situation is cleared, the control of the Boston & Maine will be found to be in Massachusetts, but "beyond the sea."

"Do you mean to tell us that somebody is wrecking the railroad for the purpose of getting control of it," asked a committee member.

"Sure, sure, that is what I am saying, as emphatically as the English language will permit," replied Mr. Bogdan.

"Who can tell us who it is?"

"If Meltonville were dying and he were informed that if he told the truth in this case he would gain entrance through the pearly gate and if he lied he would go to the other place he would tell you the truth and you would find out. I believe I know something about it."

"You know this yourself. Why don't you tell us?" was asked from the committee.

"I am under oath to say nothing about that. I have been in every capital of Europe and have crossed the Atlantic eighty-seven times, and I have many friends in Europe and am in a position to find out many things, but I am on my honor not to say. I can tell you that they have the information in New York, and there has been correspondence about it right here in Boston."

NATIONAL PROHIBITION TO COME TO A VOTE

Washington, June 10.—The question of National prohibition again today loomed up on the Congressional horizon. That the House will be forced to vote on a resolution providing for National prohibition, through an amendment to the Federal Constitution, was practically assured today. This was generally conceded as a result of the expressed willingness of Majority Leader Underwood to have the question brought before the House for a vote.

Definite action on the subject is likely to be taken by the House today. The committee had before it two propositions. One was a revised resolution introduced by Representative Hobson of Alabama, designed to meet opposition to his previous resolution on the ground that it violates state rights.

The other was a resolution offered by Representative Cantrill of Kentucky proposing a special rule for consideration of the original Hobson resolution with a limit of 10 hours' debate. It was expected that the committee would use the Cantrill resolution as a basis of action and amend it so as to apply to the revised resolution.

It had generally been understood that prohibition is "dead" so far as this session was concerned. At the last caucus of House Democrats, prohibition was one of the subjects which was not considered on the ground that it was not a party measure. This, however, did not mean that the consideration would be precluded after the program of proposed legislation had been disposed of. There are now no party measures pending before the House.

SUIT AGAINST QUARTERMASTER CAPTAIN

A motion made before Supreme Court Justice Greenbaum to vacate an order of arrest against Captain Charles T. Baker, formerly attached to the Quartermaster's Department, United States Army, in Washington, D. C., disclosed that the Skeels Coal Company has brought suit against Captain Baker accusing him of wrongfully converting and embezzling $12,287. The sum the coal company claims Captain Baker withheld from checks totaling $67,101 paid by the Government for coal consumed in the Capital.

lower plant in Washington. The coal company states in the suit that Captain Baker had the contract to supply the Government plant with coal at $3.50 a ton, and agreed if the plaintiff would furnish the coal, to endorse checks received in payment over to the coal company. Captain Baker, in his motion, says he acted as an independent contractor. The coal company he alleges, agreed to pay him one-half the difference between the purchase price of the coal and selling price to the Government. In addition, Captain Baker alleges some of the coal furnished was not of the quality required by the contract and that the weight of the coal delivered was less than the weight paid for by the Government. Decision was reserved.

MCCARTHY-POWERS

The wedding of Miss Mary Powers of 422 Merchants street and Jeremiah McCarthy of 552 Clay street took place Tuesday morning in St. Anne's church, Manchester, at a nuptial high mass at 9 o'clock. Rev. John J. Lyons, pastor, celebrated mass, assisted by the church choir, Miss Lyons, organist. The wedding was witnessed by friends and relatives.

The bride wore white crepe de chine and was attended by Miss Lena Burke who wore a pink crepe de chine gown covered with shadow lace. Charlie McCarthy was best man. Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy met acquaintances at a reception in the home of the bride. Gifts were showered on the couple during the reception which lasted until afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Powers left on the three o'clock train for Boston and New York. Upon their return they are to reside at 422 Merchants street.

Among the out of town guests at the reception were Miss Mary Randall of Kittery, Me., Mrs. Laquoek and Mrs. Carroll of Lawrence, Mass., and William Boucher of Dover.

The bride is well known in this city and Kittery where she was a frequent visitor.

ROOSEVELT-WILLARD CIVIL MARRIAGE

Madrid, June 10.—The civil marriage of Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of the American Ambassador to Spain, and Kermit Roosevelt, son of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, was performed today.

The ceremony was performed at the office and residence of the chief of police by the magistrate of the Cuernavaca district.

Police Headquarters are located in a populous section of the city, and the passage of the wedding party in five automobiles attracted considerable attention.

Moving picture men were in strong force, and in the vicinity of the building a small crowd gathered, which was kept from approaching too close by about a dozen detectives and policemen.

Col. Roosevelt and Ambassador Willard were among those present at the ceremony, and afterward the wedding party left the city to pass the afternoon at Toledo.

FEAR BRITISH WILL GET NAVAL SECRET

In selling the battleships Idaho and Mississippi to Greece, as has been proposed by the Secretary of the Navy and authorized by the Senate in an amendment to the naval appropriation bill, the Government of the United States runs the risk of disclosing the secret of what naval officers consider a priceless possession of the navy—the system of fire control, which regulates the firing of the great guns. This system has been secretly developed, and is looked upon as probably the best of its kind in the world. The Idaho and the Mississippi are equipped with it, and unless some provision is made to the contrary the purchasers of the ships in this instance the Newport News Shipbuilding Company is acting as agent for Greece, will undoubtedly ask that the ships be delivered just as they stand. The danger of the situation is that, turning over the two battleships to Greece with the fire control system left on board will mean the almost immediate possession of the American navy's secret by the British navy, as Greece's naval affairs are now in the hands of a British commission, headed by Vice Admiral Kerr.

Naval officers see in the proposed sale of the two ships still another proof of "they believe that the scheme will be used by 'little navy' men to block the building programme. The whole scheme is to sell the two battleships and use the proceeds $11,727,562 for the construction of a new dreadnought. It is believed that the 'little navy' adherents will be able to cut down the building programme to one battleship instead of providing for two as the navy desires, pointing out, with some logic, that the navy is getting two ships in any event; or, if two ships are authorized, the 'little navy' folk will insist on only one next year.

GALE SWEEP FISHING FLEET AND 100 LIVES LOST

Chatham, N. B., June 10. Conflicting reports made it impossible today to determine definitely how many vessels had been lost in the storm which swept the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Chaleur Bay and the Straits of Northumberland last Friday.

One report received this afternoon placed the number of dead at 125. At Chatham, however, it was stated that more than 100 persons had perished but he believed this was a great exaggeration.

Carapet, Shippeagan and Lamque, the headquarters of the Bay of Chaleur fishing fleet, are remote points, and because of broken wire communication it has been impossible to get accurate accounts of the storm damage.

The vessels that suffered from the gale were small schooners. Nearly every craft was manned only by members of a single family, with the father in command and three or four sons or other relatives composing the crew. Because of their size the craft were not registered in the shipping lists.

The vessels were of light draft and while many of them were blown against the rocks were able to reach shore and the schooners can easily be repaired.

St. John, N. B., June 10.—More than 100 lives were lost in the storm, which swept the Bay of Chaleur, on Thursday and Friday of last week, according to reports received here today. Adversers from outlying places along the New Brunswick and Quebec coasts seen.

REPORT 100 LIVES LOST

Word Received at St. John, N. B., of Boats Sunk and Fishermen Drowned in Storm.

St. John, N. B., June 10.—More than 100 lives were lost in the storm, which swept the Bay of Chaleur, on Thursday and Friday of last week, according to reports received here today. Adversers from outlying places along the New Brunswick and Quebec coasts seen.

THE NARROWEST ATLANTIC

Between Brazil and Guinea the Atlantic ocean is only about 1800 miles wide. From Newfoundland to Ireland the narrowest breadth north of the Equator is nearly twice as far. From New York to the nearest point of France is nearly three times as far. (Illustration most schemes of aerial flight across the Atlantic have contemplated some northern route. That suggested by the authorities of the San Francisco Exposition is by the way of Labrador, Greenland and Iceland. It has remained for the Dutch aviator Van der Born to make the first preparation to cross the ocean from continent to continent without stop and he proposes to take the southern route, where the Atlantic is narrower.

Van der Born is now supervising the construction of the new type of hydroplane. When it is complete he will go to the port of Kourou, in French Guinea, whence he promises to fly to Pernambuco, Brazil.

The scheme is more plausible than any of the other discussed trans-oceanic flights. It is natural and sensible that the first crossing should be attempted at the narrowest place even though the flight must be longer than any one of the stages of the Greenland route. There is of course the danger of tropical air currents, but these are not much more to be feared than the storms of the sub-Arctic regions which are suggested for the northern route.

No one who has observed the progress of aviation doubts that before long the Atlantic will be crossed by some venturesome flyer. There is no reason to maintain an attitude of skepticism towards the aviators of our own day who have done so much in so brief a time, and who may do so much more within the next few years.

RECOGNITION OF HUERTA MAY SPLIT PEACE PLANS

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 10.—A dangerous abstraction to progress on a vital point in the mediation proceedings has arisen which threatens failure for the negotiations. The United States has said to the mediators in unequivocal terms that it cannot consent to any method of transition from the existing regime to the proposed new provisional Government that can be construed as recognition of Huerta's Administration.

The mediators are insisting that Gen. Huerta be permitted to make the appointment of the man agreed upon here for provisional President. This the American Government absolutely refuses to accept, not only because it is committed against recognition of Huerta but because it has been informed by the Constitutionalists that under no circumstances will they accept a peace plan which permits Huerta to exercise the constitutional function of naming his successor. On this point the mediators and American delegates are blocked.

Some of the principals have lost hope for a settlement but there is a growing confidence that the mediators will devise some method of bridging the difficulty rather than allow mediation to founder on the rocks Constitutionalists Conquering.

Involved in the question of method in choosing the new provisional President is an underlying principle, which if not settled now, will certainly provoke other disagreements before any protocol can be signed.

The American Government is firm in its belief that the Constitutionalists having conquered the greater part of Mexico, should be given the controlling share in the new Government; that the Constitutionalists are moving forward to unshaken conquest in Mexico City, and that to prevent such a contingency concessions should be made, which will make their acceptance of the peace plan impossible.

The United States believes that the Constitutionalists, with their large army, form the real party which must be pacified and that the transfer of power must be to them in order to insure peace.

The American delegates, it is understood, have concluded the principal theme of the foremost military chiefs of the Constitutionalists nor any who have been conspicuous in the Huerta regime should be Provisional President, but they do not believe any progress can be made toward a settlement unless the man chosen is of Constitutional sympathies, and broad-minded enough to be acceptable to the Huerta party. The mediators are not adverse to selecting a man of Constitutional leanings if he is not an unalterable partisan.

Character of President-to-Be.

In the long conference yesterday between the mediators and the American delegates no individual was suggested by either party for provisional President, but the character of the man for the position was discussed to some extent.

The mediators are understood to have contended that to transfer the power in Mexico City from Huerta directly to a Constitutionalist, without intervening steps in conformity with the Mexican Constitution, would be heaping indignity upon Huerta.

This American delegates, it is believed, took the position that questions of personal dignity should not be allowed to stand in the way of a peaceful settlement of the Mexican problem, when the alternative is an invading army of Constitutionalists, who would perpetually distrust Huerta and his supporters and sympathizers of power. The saying of the large class represented by Huerta from consequences that might follow invasion is argued by the Americans to be of more importance than the observance of a form of succession, which the United States and the Constitutionalists could never approve.

Amnesty for the Huerta followers and a guarantee of their property rights has been undertaken by the American Government. Also the United States considers it has acted magnanimously in declining to ask for a war indemnity as a result of the occupation of Vera Cruz. It wants as reparation the establishment of a stable government and has peace restored. It will ask nothing more.

Unless the mediators find a way to straighten out the differences which have arisen, the proceedings will come to an abrupt end. On the other hand, intimations have come from the Mexican delegates that they will not insist on technicalities in the method of transfer, though they seem to be determined that a neutral be chosen provisional President, and that no one actively identified with the Constitutionalist cause be considered eligible.

ARRIVAL OF FIREWORKS

Pearson, as usual, will be the headquarters for Fourth of July fireworks, and on Wednesday he received a consignment of two tons comprising a varied assortment, including the new policeman's rattle which promises to be a big seller. Mr. Pearson will not open these goods until July 1st and will pay those contemplating the purchasing of fireworks to inspect his big stock. Mr. Pearson already has the contract for furnishing three displays of fireworks on Fourth of July.

rence; and "In the Fall of 1864," two reel Gold Seal military drama, with Grace Cunard and Francis Ford.

The Herald Hears

That the break in the steam lines of the circus railroads during the parade on Wednesday started the elephants on the run.

That the camel also got speedily when he saw the escaping steam.

That the man at the keyboard was not slow in making his escape.

That the women and children near the portable steam musical piano took it on the hoof.

That the apparatus for the children at the playground should be put in place.

That the heavy oil is being sprinkled on Junkins avenue, instead of the new variety that has been put there in past years.

That politics are warming up among the leaders of the three parties.

That a lot of planning for the coming state campaign is being done regardless of the heated season.

That invitations are being eagerly sought for the Jefferson Club outing.

That the friends of a well known clerk who recently took up a residence in Kittery are still waiting for that lawn party.

That the barbers are wondering when the pitcher of the wine clerks baseball team will get his wing in trim and pull off that game.

That a little more money in the contribution box at the Sunset League games is necessary.

That if those who drop a nickel would stretch it to a dime, they would not be over-paying for the good sport.

That it is a fact that the aggregation that do the most kicking at the game, pay the least.

That nobody should do the blindfold act when the box is passed.

That no city of its size has anything that pleases the public like the summer sport on the South playground and it should be supported by every adult that witnesses the games.

That the Boston and Maine has given its figures to the commissioners of York and Rockingham counties for the sale of the Portsmouth and Kittery land bridges.

That 400 churches throughout the country will on October 1, be supplied with high class weekly film moving pictures for congregation entertainments.

That the city of Manchester, N. H. has awarded a temporary loan of $150,000 due December 10, to Morgan and Bartlett of New York at 3.15 per cent discount.

That the city of Concord, N. H., allows only 2 per cent discount on taxes.

That the old fashioned woman who used to tie her money in the corner of her handkerchief, now hides the coin in her stocking.

That there was no session of the district court today.

That a well known wine clerk is looking for a bushel of potatoes that he recently purchased from a Rye farmer.

That if he does not get the spuds
there promises to be a court martial in the camp of the Cho Chew Club.

That Jim McCabe will look at the next calendar that he gives away to a friend and see whether it is this year or 1912.

That he has reason not to be an good terms with the man that put the 1913 card over on him.

That the telephone girl will give you the time over the wire, but she won't take any blame if you are delayed while buttoning up the back of your wife's dress.

That the girl of 16 summers has the stitch of way in the hand-holders union.

That the Democratic state committee opens up the call campaign at Concord on next Thursday night.

That the Old Timers and the Hay-makers are the for first place in the Concord Sunset League.

That a well known Haverhill physician took the wind out of the sails of three local physicians at York Beach.

That the Haverhill medical man fell and broke a wrist on the rocks near the seashore.

That somebody sent in a hurried rail to a hotel for a doctor.

That the three members of the Portsmouth medical fraternity responded in a body.

That the Haverhill man gave them the once over and refused to allow them to assist him.

That he took it as a joke and politely asked the Portsmouth doctors if they could recommend any good physician in Portsmouth.

That the local medical men are not through smiling yet over the affair.
